Consider McCarthy's `eval`, which starts

```lisp
(defun eval (e a)
  (cond
   ((atom a (assoc. e a))

What are the two arguments `e` and `a`?

Answer: `e` is an (S-)expression to be evaluated; `a` is an association list (also known as the environment for `e`).